Whether reinvested in additional shares or taken in cash, mutual fund shareholders in non-retirement accounts are responsible for taxes on all income dividends and capital gains distributions.

For federal income tax purposes, the Fund's distribution of income dividends and short-term capital gains will be taxable to you as ordinary income. Distributions of long-term capital gains generally will be taxable to you as long-term capital gains at the prevailing capital gains tax rate. Market discounts on tax-exempt bonds and swap gains are taxable as ordinary income.

Under current tax legislation, distributions from a mutual fund may be treated as "qualified dividend income" (QDI), generally taxable to individuals at the reduced maximum rate of 20%, provided that the Fund satisfies certain holding period and other requirements. In addition, an individual must meet certain holding period requirements with respect to the shares of the Fund in order to take advantage of the reduced maximum 20% qualified dividend income tax rate. QDI does not generally apply to fixed income funds.

Non-Taxable Distributions

For certain Funds, a portion of the dividends paid during the 2023 calendar year may have been designated as a nondividend distribution. These nondividend distributions are reflected in Box 3 of your 2023 Form 1099-DIV or substitute Form 1099.

In addition, the AB website has a "Tax Center" location where you may view current and historical reporting of Funds that had nondividend distributions and other Fund corporate actions that may affect a shareholder's cost basis.

Municipal Bond Funds

Market discount on tax-exempt bonds, as well as swap gains, are recognized as taxable income to shareholders. Taxable distributions will be reflected in Box 1a and/or 2a of your 2023 Form 1099-DIV or substitute Form 1099. Exempt-interest dividends and dividends subject to alternative minimum tax are reported in boxes 10 and 11, respectively, on Form 1099-DIV.

Additional Information

Some states and local municipalities allow taxpayers to exclude from their gross income calculation interest income dividends (but not capital gains distributions) derived from certain Federal obligations.

Included in this booklet is a schedule displaying the sources of the respective Fund's income dividends, which may be of use to you depending on the tax law prescribed within your individual state or local taxing authority. The appropriate percentages should be applied to the dividends received by you.
